

Help us bring summer musicals back to Little Falls!

Little Falls Summer Musical relies on the support of many businesses, organizations, and individuals. Tax-deductible donations sponsorships fund a substantial portion of LF Summer Musical's expenses.

Sponsorship Value

Local Talent, Local Enrichment

LFSM promotes arts education and enrichment by providing creative opportunities for local artists and technicians, and cultural entertainment for local audiences. Strong ties with local performing arts and education communities ensures that LFSM attracts first-rate talent for each production, and reaches a broad Central Minnesota audience.

Community Collaboration

Many local organizations and individuals have supported the launch and progress of LF Summer Musical, including for example St. Francis Music Center, the Little Falls Convention and Visitor's Bureau, and Little Falls Community Services, as well as the Morrison County Historical Society and the Charles A. Lindbergh House and Museum.

Nonprofit Governance

LFSM's founders and officers include professionals with substantial experience in development and management of nonprofits, community projects, and events and performances. Professional management will ensure LFSM is a sustainable and successful part of the arts and cultural community.

How Your Contribution Will Be Used

Sponsor contributions are used for show production as well as direct costs of organizational administration and governance. Examples:

- Show Licensing and Fees
- Wireless Mic and A/V Equipment Rentals
- Set, Scenery, and Costumes
- Show Publicity and Ticket Promotions
- Government Filing Fees and Costs
